

A coup against Islam... so where are the Muslims?

Egypt of Islam and sacrifice witnessed last night a disguised and barefaced military coup that carries with it many questions, that coup that was led by the military under the leadership of Minister of Defense Colonel General Abdel Fattah Al-Sisi after giving an ultimatum of 48 hours for the two conflicting parties, Salvation Front and the Muslim Brotherhood, to find a consensual solution to end the war of the squares (Tahrir Square and Rabia) and thus prevent the occurrence of imminent clashes which its consequences might be severe on the country according to the military and the masters of the military inside or abroad.

But before this and that the deposed president Morsi ascended to the presidency legally – of course I do not mean according to the Islamic Sharia – acknowledged internationally so why does the Egyptian military violate this sanctity?! Or there are other parties putting pressure on this establishment which is assigned to protect the Egyptian land from foreign aggression?? And where is the role of the great powers and the United Nations and the Security Council in general who claim the protection of international legitimacies?? Or when it relates to a Muslim country or a president with a scent of Islam legitimacy turns to the opposite meaning!!!

Of course that it what happened in Egypt and happened in Muslim countries before it occurred in Egypt of Islam, in the view of masters of the world today and their lackeys from the Copts and secularists who stripped off their religion and their national and moral values there is no place for Islam rather it is not fit for our time even they see it an out of date religion, they see Islam as a religion of the weak, a religion of those who do not have the right to dream of sovereignty, rather they do not have the right to be sovereign on themselves and many other reasons.

Today the tyrants of the world, the masters of the Arab and non-Arab secularists, see this era as an era of freedom, a freedom that isn't ruled by moral values, and era of unity of religions, these slogans and other carry with it a buried hatred to eliminate the religion who prevails over the other religions, they want to eradicate Islam but they will never be able to do so.

What happened in Egypt of Islam last night is not just a coup against president Mohammed Morsi and the leaderships of the Muslim Brotherhood and those who are behind them, rather it is a coup against Islam, a coup against the Muslims of the world, today in Egypt and tomorrow in Tunisia and after that to Morocco – may Allah prevent that -... O’ Muslims where are you, O’ protectors where are you, O’ guardians of the Aqeeda where are you, where are you... know that what has been taken by force cannot be retrieved except by force, because the world today only recognizes those with heavy feet, and is only pleased for who ensures the security of the cancer that gnaws the heart of the Muslim Ummah (Israel).

The coup in Egypt was preplanned, by evil hands that hate Islam, and not only the Muslim Brotherhood.

The military coup in Egypt, is a coup against Islam, exactly as have the generals of France turned against it in Algeria in the beginning of the nineties, so you who have eyes won’t you take a lesson? O’ Allah preserve our people in Egypt from the cunning of the criminals military and their lurking masters, O Allah, give guidance to this Ummah in which the people who obey You are dignified and the people who disobey You are humiliated, (and Allah is the master of His affair, but most people do not know), wa Alhamdulillah Rabbi Alalameen.
